

2025 MDE RDHH Statewide Conference

About

Start your school year with a fall two-day conference opportunity to connect and learn about the latest in the field of Deaf Education! Professionals, school personnel, and adult family members from across Michigan are invited to this conference to focus on Language for Life: Transforming Education for the Whole Child regarding students who are deaf or hard of hearing (DHH). This event will feature leaders and professionals at the national and state levels presenting on a variety of topics, including current research and evidence-based practices you can start using immediately. Day 1 will include breakout sessions specifically designed for parents. Don't miss this chance to gain ideas, network, and collaborate on ways to transform education for the whole child.

Audience

This conference is for professionals and school personnel working with students in Michigan who are DHH. Adult family members raising children who are DHH are welcome to attend the entire conference or the one-day option with included family-specific breakout sessions on Day 1.
