

Financial Literacy Workshop: Show Me That Money!

About

Ready to work and learn valuable life skills? Join the Michigan Department of Education – Low Incidence Outreach (MDE-LIO) and the Bureau of Services for Blind Persons (BSBP) for a multi-session workshop focused on financial literacy and employment. During four virtual sessions, participants will dive into understanding paystubs, taxes, work-related soft skills, and other financial literacy skills. Participants will also have an opportunity to work (for pay) at the Michigan Transition Services Association (MTSA) in-person conference March 9–10, 2025. Make a positive impact in your community and learn some essential life skills along the way!

(Adult family members may attend a special presentation at the MTSA conference on Monday, March 10.)

Audience:

This event is for students in Michigan, ages 14–26, who are Blind or Low Vision and have an open case with BSBP.
