

Family Camp: Race to Escape

About

For this event, Camp T's staff has decided that campers and their families are ready for a bigger challenge: The gates have been locked, and puzzles and clues have been scattered around camp. Families will use skills such as puzzle-solving, teamwork, orientation and mobility, reading, and more to escape the camp before the end of the weekend. Come join us as we all participate in this exciting escape-room-style game! Overnight cabin accommodations will be provided for each family if requested. Please note that cabin spaces are limited.

Audience:

This event is for school-age students in Michigan who are blind/low vision and their families.
