

Exploring American Sign Language

About

Are you interested in learning American Sign Language (ASL), but don't know where to start? Are you nervous about learning a new language as an adult? Do you have questions about ASL? Join Michigan Department of Education – Low Incidence Outreach (MDE-LIO) consultants John Kirsh and Amanda Schneider for an opportunity to learn more about ASL from a Deaf adult and parent perspective. Resources for learning will be shared, and time will be available for an open discussion.

Highlights:

- Learn about the resources available to learn ASL.
- Ask questions about ASL in a safe environment.

This event is for adult family members of children who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing who are interested in learning about ASL.
