

Foundations for Literacy: Two-Day Training

Event Description

Foundations for Literacy is a research-based curriculum and intervention that was developed specifically to teach beginning reading skills to young children who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing (DHH). This two-day training will give attendees the background, instruction, modeling, and practice necessary to implement the Foundations for Literacy curriculum and intervention materials with fidelity.

Learner Objectives:

1. Understand the research outcomes of Foundations for Literacy
2. Explain how an image representing a phoneme can be used to support decoding
3. Learn how to utilize components of the curriculum to teach letter-sound correspondence, blending, and syllable segmentation
