

Good Books and Good Night: Winter

About

Put on your pajamas, find a comfy space, and join MDE-LIO for our monthly virtual story time with families of children who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing! Each story time includes short activities and books read in both American Sign Language (ASL) and English. The stories and activities focus on a specific theme each month and are geared for children ages birth to five. December's theme is winter.

End your day with family time, snuggles, and Good Books and Good Night!

Highlights:

- Families will have a designated time to enjoy books with their children in spoken English and ASL.
- Children will have an opportunity to enjoy an interactive story time.
- Children will be able to meet other children who are DHH.
