

I Wish I Knew That Then! Personal Experiences after High School

About

Do you know a student who wants more information on navigating the transition from high school to adult life? In this webinar series, students will learn from adults who are Deaf or Hard of Hearing (DHH) as they talk about their experiences finding their own path to success after high school. Each webinar will offer an open question-and-answer format, allowing students to interact with guest presenters.

Audience

This webinar series is for middle-school and high-school students in Michigan who are DHH.

When
